

SHARED DECISION MAKING: A PATIENT-GIVEN RIGHT

“Insights into shared decision making in a changing NHS landscape”

Date: Friday, 7 April 2017 | Time: 13:25 - 14:25 | Location: Room 4A

This session will explore:

- The rights of patients in an evolving healthcare system
- Insights into real patient experiences including best practice case studies
- Motivational techniques for improving outcomes through conversation

Chaired by

Chris Woolls
Cara Trust

Speakers

Dr Jonathan Cartledge
Consultant HIV physician at the Mortimer
Market Centre, Central and North West London

Sarah Radcliffe
National AIDS Trust

Patient organisation panel

Damian Kelly
European AIDS Treatment Group

Denis Onyango
African Advocacy Foundation

Beatrice Osoro
Positively UK

Date of preparation: March 2017 Job number: 001/UK/17-02/NM/1102k

This workshop will take place during BHIVA 2017. It is organised and sponsored by Gilead Sciences Ltd.